

For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse !

This is one of the major quotes from scripture that is used by many Christians to support their anti-Law theology. This theology asserts, that Galatians 3:10 shows that Christians are not in any way under any obligation to adhere to OLD TESTAMENT LAW.

Galatians 3:10 (NASB)

(10) For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under a curse: for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the BOOK OF THE LAW, to do them."

Yet, when a person looks at the original Greek Text they are usually surprised to see that one key word has been omitted! And when the omitted word is put back in, it totally reverses the meaning of what is being said.

ὅσοι	γὰρ	ἐξ	ἔργων	νόμου	εἰσὶν	ὑπὸ	κατάραν	εἰσὶν·
as many as	For	out	works	law	are	under	a curse	are

For as many as are out (of the) works (of the) Law, are under a curse:

Strong's Greek lexicon shows that word 1537 ἐξ should be translated as; out, from or out from, or even without. So if we do not omit this word, it reads as one of the following.

(10) For as many as are out of the works of the Law, are under a curse: for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the BOOK OF THE LAW, to do them."

(10) For as many as are out from the works of the Law, are under a curse: for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the BOOK OF THE LAW, to do them."

(10) For as many as are without the works of the Law, are under a curse: for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things having been written in the BOOK OF THE LAW, to do them."

Is it possible, that the translators of the New Testament were so indoctrinated with their own Denominational theology, that rather than changing their own theology to match what they found being preached and taught in the New Testament, they instead chose to alter the New Testament to agree with their own theology?

If you believe that the Scriptures are inerrant then the question is; "Were the Scriptures inerrant before or after the Translators omitted the key word that totally changes the meaning, and reversed how it is perceived by the readers?"
